NARRATIVE:

Francisco Merlos has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21. His convictions include multiple burglaries, evading police, hit and run causing injury or death, hit and run causing property damage, receiving stolen property, grand theft of property, petty theft with priors, attempted grand theft, resisting an officer, possession of narcotic controlled substances and being under the influence of a controlled substance. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 16 month term for evading police. Merlos was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 28, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Merlos qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for hit and run causing injury or death is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
